

EPPC Mandate and Composition

The Educational Policy and Planning Committee (EPPC) coordinates the work of the major curriculum committees of the Faculty of the Arts and Sciences and advises and makes recommendations on matters of educational policy and planning to the Policy and Planning Committee (PPC) and the Executive Vice President of the Arts and Sciences (EVPAS). In particular the EPPC will review and make recommendations about educational policies that transcend schools and departments, and review and make recommendations about the coordination of interdisciplinary and interdepartmental programs and about the Core. The EPPC reports to the faculty of the Arts and Sciences, to the PPC and to the EVPAS.

The EPPC will have the following members: the EVPAS; the Dean of Columbia College and Vice President for Undergraduate Education; the Dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences and Vice President for Graduate Education; the Chair of the Committee on the Core (or designee); the Chair of the Committee on the Global Core (or designee); the Chair of the Committee on Science Instruction (or designee); three members of PPC, including the Chair of PPC (the other two PPC members shall be from the divisions not represented by the Chair), and three additional members of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, one from each division. The PPC shall work with EVPAS and Deans to appoint a faculty chair of EPPC. The Dean of the School of General Studies will be an ex officio member of EPPC. The EPPC will coordinate with the Chair of the Committee on Instruction of the School of Engineering and Applied Sciences as appropriate. Three students members representing GSAS, CC and GS will be selected by the respective school from a slate of candidates nominated by the respective student councils.
